Small Town Ho: The Hilarious Story of Moving from the Big City to North Idaho Duke Diercks

Small Town Ho is the hilarious and sometimes harrowing memoir of one family's move from the big city to the panhandle of North Idaho. No Jobs. No friends. Just buckets of their own ignorance. Not just a story about Idaho or small town life, Small Town Ho is for anyone who has ever relocated, held unusual jobs out of necessity, or experienced the spin-cycle that is raising a family. Follow along in horror and hilarity as the family acclimates to small town life and the author bounces from jobs working in a school cafeteria to selling women's clothing in a call center, to opening a barbecue restaurant. Written in a smart, self-deprecating, salty style, Small Town Ho is all at once poignant and laugh-out-loud funny, full of the struggle of an ordinary family consisting of three boys, one big black lab, one assassin of a cat, and two very tired parents.
