Conversations at Columbia College Chicago Matthew B Wincowski

This is a story about Huff, a youngster who finds himself in the busyness of college. Though he is hopeful to find a girlfriend, he ends up finding something much more valuable: authentic friendship. His journey is marked by deep conversations. He runs into a number of people with unique philosophical standpoints, people who challenge him on unexpected levels. Along the way, Huff comes to the realization that life is more than just a journey, but a quest into his own heart. He finds that life is much, much more than he once thought.
