Everywhere God: Exploring the Ordinary Places Alicia Brummeler

Awesome. Amazing. The Best Ever. If we are honest with ourselves, we have all wanted--even longed for--these kinds of extraordinary moments. This natural human desire seeps into our faith journeys too. We want the mountaintop experiences with God, we want to sense his presence in bright, tangible ways. But real life and real faith are far more about ordinary living and faithfulness than they are about experiencing one WOW moment after the next.

Alicia Brummeler challenges readers to stop waiting for the extraordinary by recognizing how ordinary life is a pathway for encountering God. She provides practical tools for meeting God anytime, anywhere.

Everywhere God is a story of finding God in everyday life. From her days as a young wife and mother to her days of parenting teenagers while juggling a teaching career, Alicia chronicles her discoveries about the goodness of ordinary, everyday faith in an accessible, engaging manner. She shows readers that experiencing God's presence isn't another task to accomplish, but a way of looking at daily life and recognizing God in the midst of it.
