Faith on Fire: The First Ingredient of a Miracle is an Impossible Situation Sherrie C. Wilson

The first woman in the Dallas Fire Department, Sherrie's true stories are entertaining, shocking, and faith building. Determined to reach her goal of retirement with a full pension, Sherrie tells what it was like to be the first-and only woman-in a profession previously reserved exclusively for men. Told with raw emotion, Sherrie will open your eyes and your heart to the reality of pioneering the way for other women to serve in similar "man-worthy" jobs. Her lighthearted manner belies the "fire in the belly" perseverance required just to show up to work. Truly her character as well as her faith were on the line with her life every time the bell rang. Even more so, her faith and character were developed and tried through the unseen fire between bells in a firehouse filled with men eager to discourage her at every turn.
