Book III in the Series: Tools for the 21st Century Mason

"If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest. Masonic labor is purely a labor of love. He who seeks to draw Masonic wages in silver and gold will be disappointed. The wages of a Mason are earned and paid in their dealings with one another; sympathy begets sympathy, kindness begets kindness, helpfulness begets helpfulness, and these are the wages of a Mason."

~ Bro. Benjamin Franklin

So many times, Masons perform Masonic "work," both within and outside of their Lodge to improve themselves in Masonry. Time and time again, one can hear someone say, "I wish I had written down all the different things I have done in Masonry over the years-the stories I could tell-I could have written a great book!" Well, now you can! This convenient little book contains "Visas" for recording the pertinent information and details about different projects, meetings, activities, events, and visitations that Freemasons participate in as they progress through Masonry. No Freemason should be without this incredible book as he travels in and out of Foreign Lands. Don't let the Ruffians steal the designs on your memory's Trestleboard. Order a copy for yourself today!

Looking for a unique or special gift for a Masonic family member or another Brother? This book and the other books in this series provide you with options to give someone the ultimate gift they can actually use, instead of adding to their Masonic shelf or wall collection.

THANK YOU for your business! A portion of your purchase will go toward improving Freemasonry through Charity, Brotherhood and Service to others!
