Calling all grandfathers! Who is meeting your needs? For decades you focused so much time and energy, and so many resources, providing and caring for your children—and now your grandchildren. Does it feel like a one-way street? Do you feel guilty for desiring validation? For wanting to be appreciated? Time to dive into DJ Young's Qualities of a Grandfather and learn, at last, how to find a sense of your unique value. You are a one-of-a-kind man—an individual worthy of respect—and in God's eyes you are important. His plans for your life are good plans, and by understanding your personal worth you will be able to embrace your destiny. It is time to begin caring for yourself, too. Let this book be your guide as you continue to explore your own personal development. Even in our later years we can continue to grow and improve in our character. Study these 26 (alphabetical) qualities, reflect on how they apply to you, pray about them, and discover all the wonderful plans God still has in store for you.
