Until You...: A Viking Tale (To Love, Honor and Cherish) (Volume 1) Elizabeth Petrie

Teegan lived a relatively peaceful existence, a sought-after healer in her small village and the daughter of the clans mighty Laird MacLoirg, each earning a position of respect among her people. Any peace had been shattered with the raid of her village that claimed her father's life; a dark time that seen Teegan living in constant fear of the next time murders would breach her shores. It wouldn't be long before her fears were realized, when the summer tides brought with them a small army of murdering warriors. Even though she was trained in both weaponry and in the ways of healing; she would be totally unprepared for the events that would see her a captive of the feared Vikings. From the shores of Ireland to the beaches of Normandy, Teegan barely weathered the angry sea and the wildly savage Vikings; who in the blink of an eye had taken her every freedom. A woman used to the privileges her station in life had afforded her, she struggled against despair during the voyage to a new land. The pondering's of her own death a constant companion, certain it was just a matter of time now; would it be drawn out or come swiftly. A historical romance filled with divine mischief.
