Forever and Ever Dan A. Baker

For Dr. Jasmine Metcalf, gene-based aging reversal and engineered human immortality in a youthful state has suddenly arrived. Battling tragedy, relentless irony and a torrid love affair, Jasmine is drawn into the limitless new world of garage biotech to treat a child dying of old age. Dying from one of evolution's most bizzare mistakes, Progeria. Interest in her work is intense. The brilliant gambits of powerful interests intent on capturing the treatment and ending further development involve her in a strange and murderous struggle. The long postulated "gene wars" and the effort to control the age of biology has begun in FOREVER and EVER.
