Mary Jo is a small town woman who discovers a mysterious box in her basement filled with letters from a soldier written during WWII. With the help of her arrogant, busy body ex-mother-in-law, she tries giving the letters to the rightful owner. The letters owner is the town's most hated woman, who throws the box away saying, "They're the workings of the devil." Confused by her reaction, Mary Jo takes the letters back and reads them herself, revealing a soldier begging his family to write, and a family that has shunned their son. War Bonds captures the spirit of "Steel Magnolias" and the intensity of "Saving Private Ryan," where the impossible happens and a family's dark secret is revealed.
