Earth to Skye Diane Sherry Case

Liv and Skye have been best friends since pre-school. At sixteen, they are trying to make the leap from "Hello Kitty" to lace thong underwear. Skye is incredibly talented and beautiful and into everything she can find in her Mom's medicine cabinet. Her parents don't seem to care what she does. Her mother is an ex-model who parties all the time and her dad still travels with his punk-rock band, leaving Skye to look after her two little sisters - when she's not hanging around with her homeless junkie boyfriend. Liv's parents are feeling their way through a recent divorce, but everyone seems to be OK with it. Then one day, all Liv has left is Skye's journal - her thoughts, frustrations, hopes and fears, her colorful drawings - and a lot of anger. She decides to join her mom - an award-winning documentary filmmaker - on a trek across The Himalaya as she films the charity work of a Tibetan monk. It is a long and harrowing journey for Liv who takes Skye's journal with her to read when no one else is around. Liv has so many questions. Will Skye's journal give her the answers she needs to be able to let go?

It is very good combination right, you still want to miss it? What kind of hangout type is it? Oh can happen its mind hangout people. What? Still don't obtain it, oh come on its named reading friends.

Tom Moore:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Earth to Skye can make you truly feel more interested to read.
