Ali wonders how she can ever recover from the heartache, the pure torture, that Riley has put her through.

She put herself out there, let herself fall for him, and again was crushed into a million tiny pieces.

Forgiveness isn't an option. He doesn't deserve it. But there are two sides to every story and Riley won't let her go without a fight. He knows how it looks—bad. If only she would give him the chance to explain, to tell her the truth, he knows he can win her back. He has to. She's his everything. She's irreplaceable. Has he gone too far this time? Is Ali gone from his life forever? He can't face that reality, and neither can Ali. == >
