Most people live their life frustrated, angry, and confused. They wake each day wanting more. But how does one start to change their life? I'm a father, lover, writer, speaker, and business owner. I write from experience and have impacted a few folks lives in the past few with my words. I don't know you, you don't know me, but if you are not self-fulfilled, I offer these words as hope. Ideas, stories, and concepts that help move one from a position of sadness to one of gladness and happiness. If you want to invest in yourself, buy this book. There are several paths to enlightenment, this is one of many. This is my road map for you, a person that I don't know, but would love to help along your life journey. I'm just a man that wakes each day with a smile. Engaging in life in a positive way, looking for ways to make the world a better place, helping those in need. These are my words and my words are for you. Good luck and I hope this book changes your life. That's my intention, to change your life.
