AFFEERCE Volume I - The Vision (Volume 1) Jeff Graubart

A vision into a future world where free enterprise and no taxes on productivity share the stage with the right to nutritious meals, warm and safe shelter, quality medical care and unlimited free education. It is both a representative cellular democracy and a direct democracy where the natural rights of mankind are paramount. It is an honest and moral society where the synthesis of objectivism and subjectivism replaces postmodernism with natural truth, the most important being, "That which we produce with our own hands belong to us alone. That which God or Nature provides, belongs to each of us and all of us." It is a world of fantasy and adventure where alternative families, communes, collectives, mutual organizations, kibbutzim, tribes, cultures, rogue states and fantasy kingdoms can all thrive off the distribution of the Earth's bounty and grow powerful businesses through easy credit, economies of scale and the division of labor. Learn how a new aristocracy will pay for the right to serve humanity in exchange for social recognition. See how violent war will be replaced by a new and exciting way to capture land called trebler war. The winner gets rights to the land at 3 times the old ground rent, the former tenant gets 150% objective depreciated value of the improvements, and the increased ground rents go to the people.
