Catching Hell: Trying to Love A BlackMan Andrea D. Oden

Black women seem to be "Catching Hell" trying to fall in love with and stay in love with a black man. This book takes a good, hard look at the problems facing black women and highlights why every woman should take an honest look at herself before placing blame on the black man. Andrea's brutally honest and tough-love approach will challenge readers to look at past relationships through a "Coroner's Report" view. Women learn quickly to accept responsibility, establish dating standards, and put firm and unmovable guardrails in place. Andrea hits hard with the question, "Are you who...the person you're looking for...is looking for?" Before attempting your next relationship with a black man, give this book a try. You might be surprised to discover a new and improved you who makes better choices in the love department. You might even find the love you've been looking for -- a love made in heaven!
