Love transcends time, distance, and even death. The essays within these pages are intended to show that there is an abundance of love all about us. While yet enduring the many negatives that crop up along the path of life, there are those among us who seem able to hold on to the positives in it. We see their serenity in both good times and bad. Perhaps the stories listed herein, may help others in achieving at least a portion of that peace we all so fervently seek and want. Everyone has a need for love. It is important to our well being. Love enters our lives in many different forms. For some its parental. For others it is of a platonic nature. Nevertheless, the dearest to everyone, is when two people find fulfillment with one another. All of the above will be found on the following pages. Most importantly, lest we forget, God is love.
