Babel Found (A Hank Boyd Adventure Book 3) Matthew James

Hank Boyd is emotionally spent, unsure of what to do next. Does he call it quits and hang up his shovel, or does he push forward and endure? The decision is unfortunately made easier when he and his team are systematically attacked. Everyone is under fire and fighting for their lives as they try desperately to escape and regroup. The enemy is merciless and unconcerned with who gets in their way. Through information acquired from a past foe, they discover that not only was the fabled Tower of Babel real, but its ruins house an evil so powerful that not even Hank, still imbued with the might of An'tala, can stop them if they obtain their prize... Him. Hank Boyd must be taken alive. The rest can die. BABEL FOUND continues the story with the same blistering pace that readers have come to love with the series. Get lost in this generation's next great adventure.
