Gentle, comfortable stories which offer joy, peace and hope. From "The Message": "She finally reached the warm embrace of her grandmother and snuggled comfortably against the familiar texture of her worn, cotton apron." From "Connected": "As he warmly studied their happiness, it occurred to him that Tog was the last of his kind. Part of him lived in Kuva, but part was forever gone. He was being absorbed by the lake people." From "Beyond the Gossamer Veil": "They were dressed in brilliant white clothing, their feet concealed by the mist. Or maybe they had no feet. She couldn't tell."
