Your Career Planner guides students and professionals through the process of finding a satisfying career that fits their individual personality and talents. It also develops job search skills and provides creative ways for people to promote themselves and their talents in the job market. The authors have applied over 30 years of research and experienced-based learning to create this step-by-step book that is used by college and universities, and individuals around the world. This book also includes a chapter on the unique transition of international students into the career world after college. Your Career Planner helps individuals: * Enhance self-understanding and decision-making skills through assessments. * Develop a career vision and skills for lifelong career decision-making. * Understand their natural talents and how to promote them in today's job market. Learn the job search game and choose a strategy to play it.
