Catie the Cute, Curious and Sometimes Crooked Caterpillar Janel Broberg

From caterpillar to butterfly...

Catie finds her way to becoming a beautiful butterfly with the help of her Mama, Betty, the beautiful butterfly.

Catie, the sometimes crooked caterpillar is found to be somewhat insecure and timid on her journey to becoming a butterfly, but later discovers that she can overcome obstacles all on her own.

This book is the first of a series of self-help books to help encourage children and young adults. It was written with the intention to educate children about the process of nature and at the same time facilitate insecure or timid children to feel more comfortable with who they are, where they're going, and who they can become.

About the author:

Janel Broberg has her Master of Arts degree in Psychology and is specialized in Mental Health and Children's Education.

Janel has a passion for facilitating strength and support in children and young adults lives.
