You're going to die - aaaaagh! Help! What on earth are you saying? You must be mad! These are the opening words of this book exploring many of the adventures of this famous wizard. Because the exploits of Harry Potter hold a secret lesson (well, perhaps really all that secret). It is a lesson that will reveal the meaning of life and death to you (to us). To borrow Dumbledore's words, it's a matter of learning to be "masters of Death". Harry managed to do it. What about you? I'm convinced you can. In fact, you have to, and this applies to all of us. That is, if you want to live. Because as you know, and as Dumbledore - who else? - said: "There really are things worse than death." And it all depends on what you choose . . .
