A collection of never-before transcribed personal letters between Revolutionary War Major General Henry Knox and his wife Lucy Flucker Knox. Knox married Lucy Flucker, a charming young girl from a staunch Tory family. By marrying Henry Knox she pledged herself to the American cause and by doing so, was never to see her family again. The letters are a revelation of the very high esteem in which the Knoxes held each other from the day they met when Lucy was just a girl of 14 until Henry's death some 36 years later.
