First Day Dandi Daley Mackall, Tiphonie Beeke

The first day of school means new shoes, fresh crayons, and a fancy lunch box. It also means leaving Mom and Dad behind, a notion that's likely to rattle even the most eager new student--and this little girl is no exception. Her classroom seems overwhelming, and the older kids are awfully big. But she soon realizes that a friendly teacher and some new pals can help even the most reticent student move past the jitters and into the fun!

Perfect for any child starting school, Dandi Daley Mackall's simple rhyming text and Tiphonie Beeke's cheerful illustrations will reassure children--and parents--who are nervous about a first day.
