When Lani finds out that Jux has been keeping his marriage a secret, she gives him an ultimatum to either get a divorce or leave her be. When he doesn't move fast enough for her she takes matters into her own hands, deciding to do what she has to for herself. Being a mistress is not an option. The only catch is, she's also keeping a secret that is being kept by the people closest to him. After Yay does the unthinkable and sleeps with Rique, Zy swore he was done with her. Even after the backlash for sleeping within the circle, Yay can't seem to stay away from Rique long enough. With all their history, are Yay and Zy able to salvage what's left of their broken broke relationship, or has the good girl gone bad forever. Harmony and Louie are crazy about each other, and even after they decided to take a leap of faith and commit to one another, are they both able to break out of their hoeish ways? Love is a constant battle, and decisions have to be made. Sometimes the people we love most don't mean us well, and walking away is just the better option. With death at their door, past grudges being held, who will be left standing? No face, No case.
