There is no job more difficult than caring for a loved one. You try to pay attention to the doctor's orders but moments after the appointment you are not sure exactly what was said. Hours of caring quickly melt into one and it can be challenging to answer questions accurately. And the questions, they are endless and precise answers are expected and needed. This book is designed to help the caregiver keep track of medications, tests, procedures, doctor's names, contact information and more. Being able to quickly answer questions and feeling in control and organized can ease the stress of the caregiver(s).
