When It's Time to Let Go: Taking Control of Abuse Mechell Medina

Based on a compelling, true story of a once loving relationship that ventures through an awful turn of events and snowballs into violent episodes of abuse. Cee, the master manipulator conceals his deviant acts from the battered victim until he explodes into a tyrannical rage and unleashes his dark side. Entangled in his web of lies and paralyzed by fear of the subtle and unwarranted attacks, deceit prevails with erroneous promises for the assault to cease. Any sign of rejecting her batterer transforms the verbal altercations into physical violence with threats of bodily harm, propositioning hopelessness at any success to escape. This suspenseful thriller will leave you hanging at the edge of your seat as you witness the victim muster phenomenal strength to conquer her attacker by taking control of abuse just to survive as she flees for dear life. As destruction begins to linger, how will she persevere in the midst of dark clouds?
