Who were the Magi and where did they come from? How did they end up at a stable in the middle of nowhere, far from their homes? --Or did they?

Travel back in time to the ancient Middle East and the distant world of the Magi, around whom so many legends have arisen. Ride in the caravan with the Magi as they journey to find the promised Messiah, whose star has appeared in the Eastern sky. How did they know it was His sign?

Written for adults and older children, this family fireside read provides a welcome escape from the stress of the holidays and takes you back to the quiet wonder of the Magi and their mysterious mission. Listen as they tell their story that began six centuries earlier with the prophet Daniel, an Israelite captive in ancient Babylon, who won the favor of the cruel and ruthless King Nebuchadnezzar. Discover how Daniel's destiny became intertwined with that of "their fathers," the Magi of his time.

What was their connection now? How did Daniel's influence course through the centuries to a point in time when they knew to look for a sign? They answer these questions as they travel by day and gather around campfires at night.

Experience their anticipation as they enter Jerusalem, and their joy when they find the child. Encounter the intrigue and tragic events surrounding their arrival. Share their grief that turns into joy three decades later when they hear the news that finally makes sense of their journey.

This narrative is told with a Middle-Eastern flavor, with all its exotic mystery. The story will enchant older children and adults, and the illustrations will delight children of all ages. It is a story the entire family can share and enjoy together.
