Magi's Christmas: Everyone's Journey Goes Through Christmas Noel Thornley

“Jesus, you have guests.” Mary coaxed him out from his shyness as she leaned down, playing with his curly chestnut hair. He had his mother’s nose and mouth, but his eyes . . . Nike had never seen such eyes. So here was this little boy, Mary’s son, at the nexus of the two greatest empires in the world. One of those empires was sending the Magi, who chose Parthia’s kings, right to his front door. This is an epic story, true to the history of the time, with the alchemy of fantasy woven into it. Magi’s Christmas explores every person’s journey, through Christmas, to the Son of God. From meager souls to the mighty and powerful. Everyone must make their journey through Christmas... Everyone.
