Calendar Events

Calendar Events

This valuable resource book provides unusual information on holidays, anniversaries, birthdays, and special events as well as innovative ways to celebrate regular holidays. Most of the activities are short and take only a little classroom time and preparation, and can be worked into anytime of the day or any areas of curriculum. The easy-to-follow directions for activities encourage research and introduce sources for locating information so students can make new discoveries. Select the special days that interest you and that you feel will have special appeal to your students. For year-round schools and youth programs, special days and activities are included for June, July, and August. Church and religious schools will find ideas for related special events and days to celebrate. There are over 50 reproducibles including: patterns for making related crafts and puppets, and math, history, art, and geography "fun sheets."
